THE TRIAL OF DR. KEASRY.—The Court-martial, which holds its sessions at No. 407 14th street, and of which Brig. Gen. Briggs is President, and Lieut Col. Burtam Judge Advocate, yesterday resumed the case of Dr. J. B. Keasby, and at 12% o'clock took a recess of half an hour, the prosecution baving just explained

the difference between a substitute and a On reassembling at 1 o'clock, testimony was continued in behalf of the Government, as

D. S. Lindall was sworn on part of Govern ment - Is a resident of Providence, R. I.; came to Washington in July; left here in October; while here was putting in substitutes for the District; while at the office of the Board of Enrollment, about 1st of October, saw a colored man come down stairs, when it was remarked by some one present that he had been refused once, and that the doctor's brother was now having him passed; saw him the next day in the nilitary service; knew Dr. Keasby as Surgeon of the Board of Eurollment; the doctor and C. A. Keasby were brothers, witness understood; witness had presented men (colored) to the dostor and before the board as substitutes and recruits, who were rejected; saw some of them atterwards in the ranks; saw them in the military service, in uniforms; had no record of their names; didn't know that he knew any one had better facilities than others to get in substitutes; knew that Chas. A. Keasby had put in more men than all others had; more than any other man in the business.

Question .- Do you know what class of men Charles A. Keasty put in ! Objected to by General Terry, of the board, and the court was cleared. On reassembling, the Court announced the objection not sustained.

Witness knew men have been carried to Mr. Kessby who would not be left with him by runners; runners have done so; runners would come sometimes with two men and leave one with him and take the other away; didn't know where the other was taken; heard gentlemen told, when hunting for substitutes, by Dr. Keasby, they could get them of his brother, saying he furnished them, at the time pointing to his brother's office; he pointed others to brokers standing around.

By defense:-Knew C. A. Keasby put in more men than others, as he always was seen by witness with more men; saw C. A. Keasby go into the Doctor's office with substitutes: did not see C A. Keasby go into the office of his brother until since the last draft.

George H. Cassidy, sworn on behalf of the Government -Lives 446 H street; by occupation a claim agent; has known the accused for five years; has presented probably from 50 to 100 men before the board; some were rejected for physical disability, over and under age, &c.; on the 8th of October presented eight men before Dr. Keasby; two were rejected, and one was taken along back; afterwards saw Chas. A. Keasby have him, and remarked to him that the man had been rejected for witness, and asked Keasby what he intended to do with him, when he said he would put him-Objected to by defence, as it brought in conversation which occurred between them. Objection sustained. Mr. Keasby took the man in, and he was accepted; he was examined by the accused: this was on Monday, the 16th of October, between 11 and 3 o'clock: when witness had the recruits before the Doctor he told him not to bring that kind of men up agaid, and alluded to their

By defence: -- Alexander was about 18 years of age; took him up before the board; witness thinks he was rever ordered out of the dostor's room; might know Alexander, and might not; was with him three days; the doctor reported to witness that Alexander was rejected; told witness to bring no more such men; was in the passageway when the doctor's brother went into the doctor's room with this man; the doctor's brother, witness thinks, did not go into the room with the man Alexander; he sent in a card with him; witness never thought Dr. Keasby favored him; never any particular illfeeling between us; never had a difficulty with the doctor concerning witness's enlisting a man here to send North; does not know the doctor had reported him as having enlisted a man who had been rejected by him previously. The court here adjourned to to-day.

DIVORCE CASES .- Yesterday, Judge Wylie. sitting in equity, granted a decree divorcing Margaret Stolpp from the bonds of matrimony with Gottlob Stolpp. The petition in this case was filed Nov. 216, and charged adultery on the part of the busband, and testimony was taken by Examiner R. M. Beale, when the allegation was proved as having been committed in this city and in Philadelphia; and on this evidence the decree was granted. The parties were married on the 13th of November, 1861, by Rev. Mr. Finckel, in this city. R. H. Laskey, Esq., appeared for the petitioner. Judge Wylie also made a decree divercing

Ann Ford, a mensa et thora, (from bed and board,) from Frank Ford. The petition in this case was filed July 26th, and set forth that her maiden name was Ann Garner; that in 1810 she married Richard Knott, by whom she had five children, two of whom are now living. In March, '57, she married Ford, by whom she has had three children, all dead; and she charges that he treated her with harshness, rendering it impossible for her to live with him; that he has frequented the company of lewd women, committed adultery, and has several times been treated for the venerial disease; that he has deserted her and refused to support her, and she has been compelled by her own labor to support him: that on one occasion he attempted to violate the person of her daughter, and on another occasion be attempted to violate the person of a woman. The allegations were proved, and on this proof the decree was granted. W.S. Cox, Esq, appeared for complainant.

GRAND LARCENIES -Saturday, Arthur Mason, colored, was arrested by officer S. W. Taylor, of the Third Ward, upon the charge of stealing a quantity of bicon, from the store of Jones & Co., corner 8th and D streets. The bacon was recovered from a stable, in which Mason had hid it. Justice Thompson sent Mason to inil for court.

Office Parknurst arrested A. J. Dean upon a charge of stealing a hat and a sum of money from W. H. Westerbrook The act was committed some time since. Dean met Westerbrook in the street, and they went to a hotel together, had some drinks, and retired to a room, where they lodged that night The next morning Westerbrook awoke and discovered hat his money, hat and companion were gone. Saturday night he met Dean for the first time since the robbery, and had him arrested. Justice Thempson committed Dean for Court.

Officer Leach arrested John Sullivan, alias Driscoll, upon a charge of stealing a horse from Benjamin Raughter. The horse was recovered and placed in charge of the Police Property Clerk, and the prisoner was sent to jail for hearing by Justice Thompson.

SMASHING A RANCHE .- Friday night, about ten o'clock, the police of the Fourth Ward made a descent bpen the house on G street, near New Jersey avenue, kept by Mary Smith, and captured all the inmates-four soldiers and five females-all of whom were taken to the station-house. At the hearing before Justice Giberson the soldiers were dismissed, Mary Smith was sent to jail for court on & charge of keeping a bawdy-house, Mary Switzer was sent to the workhouse, Fanny Angel was fined $5.71, and Ida Smith and Josephine Smith, children, were dismissed.

CRIMINAL COURT, Judge Fisher .- Yesterday, after our report closed, Leonard Bailey, colored, indicted for an assault and battery with intent to kill, was found guilty of an assault, and sentenced to jail for thirty days, and to pay a fine of fifty dollars.

Curus Grabam, indicted for renting a house for bawdy purposes, was found no guilty. Fran': Simpson, indicted for keeping a lottery office and selling lottery tickets, was tried and the case given to the jury.

NOT PAID .- We hear that the deserving employes at the Arsenal have not been paid for the past month, but presume the paymaster will soon be down there, as other departments have been paid. As many of the employes at the Arsenal have families dependent upon them for support, the receipt of their wages regularly is a matter of no little solicitude to

MEETING OF THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC Association.—The members of the National Democratic Association railied last night to the number of eighteen for the transaction of

After the meeting was called to order by Judge Mason, Hon. T. B. dress the association. Mr. Samuel Brereton moved that as the organization was to be permanent, a list of mem-bers be made out, and that it be made incumbent upon them to contribute 25 or 50 cents each per month to defray the current expenses of the Mr. Florence was opposed to the motion because it would tend to keep gentlemen away from the meetings. He thought that the least embarrassment would always secure the largest attendance. He was under the impression that Mr. B.'s proposition could not be carried into effect according to the provisions of the by-laws of the association. Mr. Brereton withdrew his motion, but gave notice that at the next meeting he would move to amend the by-laws so as to make each member pay a monthly contribution. Mr. Clampitt said he desired to offer a resolution which would meet the approbation of every one, and reach the hearts of the Democracy of the District. Mr. Clampitt then offered a resolution for the benefit of the Constitutional Union, and authorizing the appointment of a committee to collect a sum of money to be tendered to the editor of the Union as a Christmas present. Adopted. The Chair then appointed a committee, consisting of two gentlemen from each ward of the city and three from Georgetown, to carry out the provisions of the resolution. Mr. Clampitt, from the committee appointed at a former meeting to draft a series of resolutions as a basis for the future action of the association, stated that the committee had the matter under advisement, but would be unable to report until next meeting. After an explanation by the President that the debts of the old association had been liquidated, the meeting adjourned. REMEMBER THE ORPHANS .- Don't fail to remember the fair for the benefit of the orphans, now in progress at Odd Fellows' Hall, 7th street, under the care of kind-hearted ladies of this city of various churches, who have united their efforts in behalf of the homeless little ones deprived of their natural protectors. As we stated yesterday, the appeal comes home to all phans here belong elsewhere, many of them being the children of seldiers. The fair room abounds in articles of use and ornament, sold at a fair price; and we must not forget to mention the excellent supper provided nightly, by eating which the charitably inclined can help along the good cause in the most enjoyable manner to themselves personally. It's the most luxurious way of satisfying conscience and hunger at the same time imaginable. Try it.

THE UNITED STATES MARSHAL .- A number of applications have been made to the President during the past week in behalf of various gentlemen for the position of U.S. Marshal for the District of Columbia, in anticipation of the resignation of Col. Lamon. Among the names mentioned in this connection we hear those of Mr. Daniel R. Goodloe, Mr. E. D. Webster and Mr. Wm. Dixon. The income of the office, iqeluding pay for deputy, now amounts to but about five or six thousand dollars per year, (at the outside,) bence the scramble for the place is not so lively as in days of vore when it amounted to many times that sum.

DARING BURGLARIES .- A few nights since the residences of Senator Morgan and Col. Ellison, on Fifteenth street, were entered by thieves, and robbed of a large amount of clothing, table linen, silver, &c. The parties effected an entrance through the front windows and came out of the front doors, not omitting to take with them the boots of the Colonel, placed in the hall for the consideration of the boot-

WE take pleasure in noticing the following letter written by one of Professor Wolowski's pupils .- Professor Alexander Wolowski, 353 6ch street, between H and I, Washington, D. C .- Dear Sir: Permit me to thank you previous to my leaving the city, for the extreme care and attention you paid to the cultivation of my mu ical education. Your new method, as well as your way of explaining, is so remarkable that it enabled me in one course of lessons to read music with great facility, and execute difficult composition on the piano forte. I recommend Professor Wolowski's new system most cheerfully, and would advise all those who would wish to become fine musicians to join his courses. Wishing you the success you so well merit, I am yours, very truly, WM. W. SEINNER.
